BATTLEFIELDS OF WORLD WAR II TOUR

Allied Forces storm the beaches of Northern France

DAY 1: USA - PARIS

Depart from Washington Dulles Airport. Your evening trans-Atlantic flight will take you overnight to Paris, the "City of Lights." In flight meals will be served.

DAY 2: ARRIVAL IN PARIS - CAEN

Breakfast will be served before landing in Paris. Upon arrival in Paris, after clearing customs formalities, you will be met by your professional tour manager who will be with you for the entire tour. You board your deluxe motorcoach for the drive to Caen on the west coast of France. Along the way you will make a stop at Giverny, home of Monet, the famous French painter. You will also stop at Mantes-la-Jolies (Pretty Mantes) where German General Rommel made his headquarters during WWII. Later this afternoon, you will arrive in Caen in time to freshen up before your welcoming dinner.

DAY 3: CAEN - NORMANDY BEACHES

Breakfast at your hotel. A full day of history is in store for you as you head out of Caen and travel first to the famous Normandy Beaches. You will travel along the Normandy coast visiting Sword, Juno and Gold Beaches where British and Canadian forces landed. At Arromanches you can still see the remains of the temporary cement docks placed before the war. By mid-morning you will continue to visit the Omaha Beach. In between Omaha and Utah Beach is the cliff-top location of Pointe-du-Hoc where Lieutenant Colonel James Earl Rudder and his Rangers scaled them under enemy fire. After a stop here, you will continue to Utah Beach where you can walk the beach and visit the museum. Your last stop before returning to Caen will be St. Mere Eglise, the first town liberated by allied soldiers. Return to Caen for your overnight. Dinner tonight is on your own at many restaurants close to the hotel.

DAY 4: CAEN - PARIS

Following breakfast it's time to drive to Paris where in the afternoon you will be given a sightseeing tour. The city of Can-Can, boulevardiers and artists looks lively as its reputation. Your sightseeing tour shows you the spice of its life: the Opera, Place de la Concorde, Champs-Elysees, les Invalides and Notre Dame Cathedral. Tonight you will have dinner at your hotel followed by a romantic Seine River Cruise. Return to your hotel for overnight.

DAY 5: PARIS - REIMS

Breakfast at your hotel. This morning you will drive northeast towards Reims and eventually on the scenic Champagne route. The history of Reims goes back more than two thousand years. Destroyed at 80% during the First World War, the city was rebuilt. Three decades later, Reims becomes General Eisenhower's headquarters where the official German surrender was signed May 7th, 1945. You will visit the Surrender Room which has been kept as it was then. Your sightseeing of Reims will also include the famous Notre Dame Cathedral. If time permits you will be treated to a Champagne tasting at one of the many Champagne Cellars in Reims. Dinner and overnight at your hotel.

DAY 6: REIMS - VERDUN - LUXEMBOURG CITY

Following breakfast you will depart for Luxembourg City with a stop in Verdun. The Battle of Verdun is considered the greatest and lengthiest in world history. The battle, which lasted from February 21, 1916 to December 19, 1916 caused over an estimated 700,000 casualties. The battle degenerated into a matter of prestige of two nations literally fighting for the sake of fighting. You will visit the Ossuary, containing the bones of 130,000 unidentified soldiers and civilians who died during the war. Following your visit, you will continue to Luxembourg City. You will visit the American Cemetery where General Patton is buried and facing his more than 5,000 fallen soldiers. The city of Luxembourg served as the headquarters for General Patton's U.S. Third Army. Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Luxembourg City.

DAY 7: LUXEMBOURG CITY - AACHEN

Breakfast at your hotel. Today your tour begins with a stop and visit at Mardasson Museum located in Bastogne. This fascinating museum is the work of one man, Mr. Guy Franz Arend, who founded the first version of the museum after visitors to Bastogne had made remarks that they regretted the absence of a historical museum in the city. You will then continue to Bastogne for lunch on your own before continuing to Aachen via St. Vith and Spa. Dinner and overnight at your hotel.

DAY 8: AACHEN

Breakfast at your hotel. Today will be spent visiting the Battle of the Bulge sites. For the U.S. Army, the battle incorporated more troops and engaged more enemy troops than any other conflict before that time. The German objectives ultimately were unrealized. In the wake of the defeat, many experienced German units were left severely depleted of men and equipment, as German survivors retreated to the defenses of the Siegfried Line. The Battle of the Bulge was the bloodiest of the battles that U.S. forces experienced in WWII. At the end of this most historical day, you will return to Aachen for dinner and overnight.

DAY 9: AACHEN

Following breakfast, you will drive along the Rhine River to Cologne. You will have a tour of the city, beginning with a visit to Cologne's most impressive Cathedral, said to be the world's greatest example of Gothic architecture, and it dominates the entire area. Cologne's incomparable monuments and art treasures in its museum symbolize episodes in 2000 years of cultural history. Nowadays, the lively city scene, the beautiful parks and green belts and the inimitable shopping area will explain the city's popularity. Following your visit, you will continue to Remagen, site of the Remagen Bridge which was destroyed by the Germans in March of 1945 in order to prevent American troops from crossing the Rhine to the other side. Time permitting, you may wish to visit the Peace Museum located in the towers Remagen Rhine site. You then continue your journey to Boppard where you will be embarking on your Rhine Cruise. Cruising along the historic stream, you pass charming small villages shadowed by knights' castles high on crags, and vineyards sloping down over terraces. You round the Lorelei cliff and continue to Oberwesel. Here you will be met by your motorcoach and driver for the short trip to Frankfurt. Enjoy a Farewell Dinner tonight in preparation for the flight home tomorrow.

DAY 10: FRANKFURT - USA

Today you bid farewell as your motorcoach transfers you to the airport for your return flight to Washington Dulles, taking with you so many wonderful memories of your Battlefields of World War II tour!
